STOCKTON PARISH COUNCIL - VACANCY FOR A PARISH COUNCILLOR

Stockton Parish Council are seeking to co-opt a parish councillor to fill a vacancy.

This would suit somebody who wanted to make a positive contribution to community life in the parish. The council meets on the evening of the third Monday of each month. Training in the various aspects of a councillor's duties and responsibilities is available.

Please make your application in writing by 30th September stating why you think you might be suitable for the post, to the Parish Clerk at 74 George Street, Stockton, CV47 8JT or email to clerk@stockton-warks-pc.gov.uk

STOCKTON HISTORY GROUP

Meeting in Stockton Village Hall - 7.30pm

An informal group sharing information about the village we live in

The next meeting of our group will be at 19.30 on Monday 9th September in the village hall. The topic will be the local business premises - pubs, butchers, bakers, candlestick makers (?), etc. Like recent meetings it will be lavishly illustrated with lots of photos, etc, but we do need you to come along with your memories.

Val Legg steps down from the Village Hall.

Soon after arriving in the village, Val joined the Committee and quickly took on the office of Treasurer and was appointed Trustee in 2013. Val, always at the forefront of fundraising events; her cakes always being well received (and will continue for as long as she wishes to make them for us in the future).

Over the years, both Val and Bruce have contributed massively to maintaining the fabric and building of the Hall – (behind every good wife stands a supportive husband – lol).

With Val's stewardship over the years, the Hall is well placed as we go forward.

On behalf of all our family I would like to give our heart felt thanks for the kind words and support given to our Dad (Mike) and the rest of our family following the passing of our Mother Hazel Grey on 30th May.

She was sadly taken unwell very suddenly whilst on holiday on Hayling Island and subsequently passed away in intensive care a few hours later in Portsmouth Hospital.

Special thanks go to Gillian Roberts who carried out the funeral service for us. It was lovely that a friend of many years was able to do this and give the service a very personal touch. Thanks to The WI who made some lovey cakes to complement the amazing spread of food which Dorne from Josies Place prepared for the wake. Thank you also to the Football Club for hosting the wake. It was a beautiful sunny day which allowed us all the opportunity to spend several hours reminiscing about Mum whilst sat looking out over the beautiful countryside.

Thank you for all the messages of condolence and cards/flowers we have received. It has been overwhelming. Thank you to all those people who came to the funeral. The church was bursting at the seams with family and friends. It's times like these which help us to realise how wonderful it is to live in the village. It reminds us of the love and kindness that surrounds us even in moments of sorrow. Your thoughtful gestures have brought us peace to know we are in your thoughts.

Thank you

Karen Neal

Hazel Grey 1940 - 2024

Hazel Schofield was born, on the 13th of September 1940 during an air raid near Heathrow airport. Her Dad, Richard, was often away in the army serving in the war. Her memories of her early childhood were carefree, searching for treasure in the bombed remains of houses.

She was surrounded by close family, grandparents, aunts and cousins who all lived close by. She remembered the first time she recalled seeing her dad. He had brought her back bananas that he had kept safe in a wooden canary cage and lifted her on his shoulders. She vividly remembered how the rough army uniform chaffed her legs.

Her brother, Rich, arrived when she was seven years old and she was very close and protective of him. She used to talk about being a 'latch key kid' who would come home from school to an empty house, to start tea and light the fire and how she accidentally set fire to the kitchen curtains, which wouldn't have gone down well as her Dad was a fireman.

She remembered a very happy childhood, running wild in the streets, fishing for sticklebacks in the river Longford with Rich, jam sandwiches and Dandelion and Burdock.

She went to Spring Grove Grammar School where she said she was teased about her ginger hair. They used to sing "Ginger you're barmy" to her but she was proud that her ginger gene lives on in her grandchildren Ollie and Finn. In her teenage years she found Elvis. Much to the disapproval of her Dad. She often used to say that she would have left home for Elvis, but I'm not sure how our dad ever felt about that.

When she left school she went to work at Nestle' in the laboratory making small batches for new products. Family legend has it that she created the Toffee Crisp -but what we do know is a fact that she became the first woman in the country to obtain a City and Guilds in chocolate and sugar confectionary.

While she was at Nestle her boss asked her to go down to reception and bring a young man up for a job interview. He later told her that he had just employed her future husband and how right he was. Our dad, Mike Grey, married her in 1962 at St.Catherine's church, Feltham and so their life together began.

In their early married life they lived with Dad's mum and brother Dick in a converted flat upstairs in their house. Karen was born two years later.

A job opportunity came up for dad so they moved to Bristol in 1965. This was such a brave thing for her to do. To move away from all her family and friends with a young child and not being able to drive- it must have been so daunting. Sadly while they lived in Bristol she gave birth to little Eleanor who only lived for a short while. It was such a heart breaking time that she only really talked about it in her later life.

A year later, Jo made her appearance, quickly followed by Neil. Three months after Neil was born we moved to Stockton. If she thought Bristol was a change of culture she wasn't prepared for the shock of Stockton!

Dad worked extremely hard and often worked away. So it must have been tough for her with 3 young children, in a small village and still not driving. Tuckwell Close had only just been built and had no tarmacked road at the time. She used to bump her huge, silver cross pram down the hill with Neil, a happy chubby baby, Jo a reluctant walker perched on a board on top and Karen toddling behind.

She remembered trying to negotiate the pram up the steps and squeeze through the village hall door to visit the doctors surgery. Being a city girl she was frightened to leave Neil outside. She was greeted by a straight talking Stocktoner who said "what's so special about your baby for anyone to want to steal him....we've got plenty of our own. Stockton was going to be a very different life!

She came to love Stockton very much and threw herself into village life. She organised and ran the village playgroup for many years where her caring nature thrived. Her "two little dickie birds" routine became legendary and something she continued to do for her grandchildren.

Dad then taught her to drive, a feat in itself with 3 children arguing on the back seat. Once she could drive it opened up a whole new life for her. She trained to become an Auxillary nurse for the NHS and visited patients in their homes. Yet again her caring nature made her a much loved and respected nurse.

Dad was a keen sportsman so she regularly did cricket teas and used to wash Stockton Football teams kits every weekend. She managed to wash and dry them without the luxury of a tumble dryer and having 3 children's clothes to wade through as well.

Her love of football and cricket continued and our dad would often take her to Edgebaston. I'm not sure she knew the rules but she loved the atmosphere, especially the international matches. They became season ticket holders at Coventry City football club and it was something she shared with Karen's family right up to the end of her life. She would sit with her ear phones in listening to the radio commentary, people watching & soaking up the atmosphere.

She was an active member of so many groups. She went crafting, which we think was more of catching up on village gossip. She joined a line dancing group, much to the amusement of her grandchildren when she went 'on tour' in her rhine stone, embossed T-shirt. And of course, the WI that she was a member of for so many years and got such huge enjoyment from. We have the WI to thank for what we now call 'Grandma's pass the parcel game'. It became such a christmas tradition. Every year she would declare it was the last year she would do it and every year she was forced out of retirement to do it again. Who knew that a simple game could generate such passion and competitiveness? She took it to Christmas in America when we stayed with Neil and his family. The grandchildren ended up arguing over a pair of socks, which they still talk about now. Who won them Adam? Josh? Jonty??? Neil has now introduced Grandma's game to his team at work and so the tradition will carry on.

She was so proud of all 8 of her grandchildren and we are sure she told all her friends their achievements and exploits. She was never happier than when she was with them. She was so excited to be able to spend time with her new great grand-daughter, Emmy, so Hollie and Laura, thank you for that special time. Family birthdays will never be quite the same without the early morning call where her and Dad would sing the entire happy birthday song, regardless of where we were or what we were doing.

In the last few years her health deteriorated which infuriated her. She said she never went out anymore but if you called her she was always on her way out to some group or sat in McDonalds with Dad enjoying a coffee.

She used to bring up her “when I’m dead” conversation, and we all just rolled our eyes. At one point our dad jokingly offered to fly her to Switzerland to Dignitas. Typical mum she said she wouldn’t be able to go with him as she wouldn’t get travel insurance.

So that is Hazel’s life, but not who she was. She was so much more. Of course she wasn’t perfect. She was full of lovely human imperfections and quirkiness that made her who she was. She was prone to saying things in a loud, outside voice where we would all cringe and shrink in our seats- apparently it’s a Schofield family trait that we hope to carry on.

Everyone here has been touched by her in so many different ways.

She was an amazing friend to so many people but especially to Sandi, Chris & Shirley. They supported each other for so many years and travelled in their lovely friendship group to countries they had dreamt about.

She was the most caring, generous & supportive mum to us and to all her grandchildren.

She was not just a wife to Dad, she was so much more and we can’t speak about that without crying. But you know, dad, and we know how much she meant to you.

At the end, in the hospital she said to the consultant “I’ve had a lovely life” and that is something we will all remember.

As one of our mum’s favourites, Winnie the Pooh said “How lucky I am, to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard”

But we need to finish with mum’s words

“Isn’t it lovely that we are all together”.

STOCKTON PARISH COUNCIL

Meetings held every 3rd Monday in Village Hall 7.15pm.

Full copies of approved minutes available from Clerk to Parish Council

Mr. W.J. Robinson Tel: 01926 814094 or

website .www.stockton-warks-pc.gov.uk

JUNE 2024 MEETING

These are informal notes only, for a full record please refer to the approved minutes on our website.

District and County Council Issues: Fire Service reorganisation - a report was due to go to the County Council Committee on 26 June about the proposed reorganisation of the Fire and Rescue Service to give a better coverage and response during the busiest periods of the day. This will mean that Southam Station, that is presently covered by “on-call” staff, would in future be staffed with full-time people during the daytime (7am - 7 pm), which is the busiest period, and at night there would be on-call staff who would be contracted to turn out in case of an emergency. If necessary there would be back up from other stations. Over the county this would increase the number of guaranteed pumps from 11 to 14. The plan will also mean that £2.26M would be spent on improving the infrastructure and facilities at the stations over the next 3 years.

Village Facilities: The electricity sub-station by The Pound still has fencing barriers left and an unfinished excavation - this will be reported to National Grid.

Hedge trimming: the contractor will be asked to cut back the hedges in Mount Pleasant, The Square behind the bus stop, St. Michael’s Crescent next to Glebe Close and Memorial Green. On Memorial Green the untended area under the chestnut tree will also be cleared. Warwickshire Highways will also be asked to cut back the overgrown hedge in Grange Farm Drive. This work will take place after 31 August. Gates to the new cemetery - quotes have been sought to replace one of the double farm gates with a smaller pedestrian gate to make access easier when the new cemetery comes into use. George Street verges - Councillor Crump has allocated money from his delegated highways budget to extend the “grasscrete” area that was done last year. Discussions are being held with Orbit Housing about ways in which the parking outside houses at the end of George Street can be accommodated.

Planning Matters: Springholm, Napton Road 924/001360 - reconfiguration of garden space, permission granted.

Parish Councillor Vacancy: An advert will be placed in the next few weeks in Stockton’s News and on village Facebook sites for a co-opted councillor to fill the vacancy.

Stockton Football & Cricket Club Lease: Negotiations with Fisher-German who act as agents for Cemex are progressing well and it is hoped that this will provide the club with a 20 year lease held directly with Cemex rather than being a sub-tenant under the Parish Council.

Next Meeting : 7.15pm on Monday 15 July.

JULY 2024 MEETING

District and County Council Issues: Fire Service reorganisation - the report is due to go to Cabinet on 16 July. No Mow May - Cllr Crump has raised problems arising from the No Mow May policy that has caused grass in some places to be left unmowed until the end of June. Councillors' Grant Scheme - Cllr Crump has allocated some of his grant funds to family lunches in our church.

Planning Matters: Westfield House, Mount Pleasant (24/00941) - proposed new 6 bed dwelling house and new vehicular access - permission granted.

Audit Report: The Auditor has carried out a full inspection of the parish council's financial records and procedures and gave a general judgement that they were satisfactory. Three recommendations were made

The council to consider internet banking - this process was already under way
To consider a financial procedures process - this will be given further consideration

Keep up to date records of playground inspections - this will be commenced.

Village facilities: A contractor has been appointed to replace one of the double farm gates at the cemetery extension with a pedestrian gate to make access easier. This year's hedge trimming will go ahead on 14 August. A contractor has been appointed to undertake various "handyman" duties including painting the defibrillator box, removal of the wooden fence in the children's play area, cutting back the brambles and weeds on the public footpath between Becks Lane and St. Michael's Crescent and applying weedkiller to the tarmac area in the playing field.

Volunteer Transport Scheme: the parish council agreed to continue with its subscription to the Southam Volunteer Driver Scheme when the current membership expires.

Vacancy for Parish Councillor: the parish council is seeking to co-opt a councillor to fill the vacancy that has existed. The advert is shown elsewhere in Stockton's News.

Next Meeting: 7.15 pm on Monday 19th August 2024.

AUGUST 2024 MEETING

(Please note that these are informal notes only, for a full record please refer to the authorised minutes on the parish council website.

District and County Council Matters: Warwickshire Highways

Maintenance has been ranked as one of the best performing maintenance authorities in the country. The "Grasscrete" verge treatment in George Street is in the programme for completion later this year.

Village facilities: An independent safety inspection on the children's playing field equipment has been completed and found only minor issues that will be dealt with by the Parish Council or the Playing Field Committee. No serious defects were found. The wooden fencing that has come to the end of its useful life is being removed. The hedge trimming work around the village has been completed. Village post box - the post box outside the Post Office has been reported to Royal Mail as needing repainting and they will undertake an inspection and repainting as necessary.

Police Patrols: the Southam Safer Neighbourhood Team (SNT) have been undertaking foot patrols around local villages including Stockton and have been checking parked vehicles to see if they have valid tax, MOT and insurance. Warwickshire Connected is a free messaging service which gives regular crime updates and gives people an opportunity to report concerns about local crime and safety. The website is warwickshireconnected.com.

Planning Matters: 17 Mount Pleasant (24/01802) rear and front side extension and raising of roof line to create extra storey - No Objection from parish council. Stockton Football & Cricket Club - the parish council will submit a planning application as the prime tenant for the extension of the pétanque area.

Stockton Football and Cricket Club Lease: The current prime lease is between Cemex and the Parish Council and with the club as a sub-lease. It has about four years to run and this is proving to be a difficulty in applying for grant funding so negotiations have been underway for some time over a new lease that would be directly between Cemex and the Club. The current lease with the Parish Council will have to be surrendered and so the Council has agreed to share the legal cost of the transfer of lease.

Parish Councillor Vacancy: an advert appears elsewhere in this magazine.

Next meeting: 7.15 pm on Monday 16 September 2024

Facts, evidence etc

Often, I see residents in both my County and District Wards making comments/statements that are not true, using sources that were questionable to say the least. One referred to petrol prices and was quite inflammatory, then whoosh it all it all kicked off.

Please try to ensure all statements are as accurate as possible when posting. There was also a post about ASB and alleged dangerous riding on mopeds (and electric scooters) in the area – please continue to report details to the Police. Particularly, when they are riding between Stockton & Southam, in dark clothing and without any lights at night.

One resident also complained recently about alleged drink driving and drug dealing in the area/building. Unfortunately, the resident had no descriptions of alleged perpetrators, nor their vehicles nor dates and times, which I found highly suspicious.

Crimestoppers

If you have information contact them anonymously and securely on 0800 555 111

<https://crimestoppers-uk.org/give-information>

There will be a Police drop-in session in Tithe Lodge on 30th September – please feel free to attend and let the Police know of your concerns. I will advertise the event nearer the time.

These concerns could include

Dangerous driving through the village

ASB & alleged drug dealing

Car thefts/break-in

Grass-cutting – No Mow May (NMM)

Whilst I support, in principle and within certain parameters, NMM – I still think it can be done better as some areas suffered from no mow June too, due to a backlog in cutting. Also, there are large clumps of grass left behind too, at times. I also got the area by the crossroads cut again due to visibility concerns. I did raise with the leader of Stratford District at Full Council the 3 Cs in terms of NMM

Communication – need to be honest with residents and let them know that grass in their area won't be cut immediately after NMM ends.

Contractor Capacity – due to backlogs, the contractor needs to ensure that it has sufficient machines/staff available from 1st June to tackle backlog

(also equipment is powerful enough to cut grass that can be 30-60cm high)

Co-ordination -sometimes cuttings blow into the road/gutters , leading to potential blocked drains then some minor flooding.. I did ask for the streetsweeping to be co-ordinated to take place after the cutting, in order to stop cuttings blocking drains.

The Leader agreed that the suggestions were sensible and would liaise with streetscene team.

Pregnant smokers

When a new baby is due, quitting smoking is one of the best things you can do for you and your baby.

Stopping smoking can be challenging, but it has now been made easier for pregnant women and expectant parents with the introduction of vape quit kits.

PAVEMENT PARKING/PARK IT RIGHT – the excuse, I won't be long isn't sufficient – it only takes a few seconds for a collision to occur. THINK ABOUT OTHERS NOT JUST YOURSELF

Every week, I get reports of some terrible parking – with cars blocking pavements (especially dropped kerbs), making it impossible for people with mobility scooters or with push chairs to get by, without going into the road. In some cases, too, emergency services vehicles (particularly fire appliances) would struggle to pass. PLEASE THINK OF OTHER PEOPLE, NOT JUST YOURSELF

PLEASE REPORT ANY ASB , however trivial it may seem. Small incidents can lead to bigger ones, so better to stop them before they escalate .Also, the more calls/incidents the Police have, the sooner they will realise there is a problem in a certain area. PLEASE ALSO ENSURE YOUR PROPERTY AND CAR IS LOCKED AND SECURE.

Reporting out of hours highways issues can be challenging, the best number for that is 01926 415000.

streetlighting@warwickshire.gov.uk or 01926 412515 (not all are currently owned by WCC – some owned by town or parish council.)

<https://www.fixmystreet.com/reports/Warwickshire>

It is worth noting for future reference that anything immediately dangerous on the highway should be reported direct to the Police on 999, which is the same process for any pressing issue Out of Hours.

During normal office hours - 8:30am to 4:30pm, WCC call centre is best on 01926 412515

Beavers

We were very busy during the summer term, with visits to Brandon Marsh Wildlife Centre for pond dipping and bug hunting, Southam Fire Station where we had an interesting talk about fire safety and then all the Beavers had a go with the hose! We have also been making bird feeders, dog poo bag holders for the village and learning all about knots.

We have had sessions on erecting tents, teeth hygiene, navigation and safety. We have also been working on our Gardener, Camp Craft and Science Activity Badges and our Adventure Challenge Badge.

Cubs

We accompanied the Beavers to Brandon Marsh for a bit of pond dipping and learning about animal habitats.

The older Cubs have been working towards their Leadership Challenge Badge by organising and running a weekly meeting. Both Zachary and Owen had the Cubs engaged and ran fun filled sessions.

We were also lucky enough to have a great evening with Stockton Pétanque Club where Becky kindly taught us all about the game and how to play.

We have also had a busy term working towards our Money Skills, Artist, Scientist Activity Badges and our Skills and Teamwork Challenge Badges.

Scouts

We had a session on building a Da Vinci bridge to see whose bridge could span the widest gap and hold the most weight.

We also designed a course with obstacles, challenges and forfeits along the way. Our Young Leader Josh devised a great scavenger hunt around the village!

JUNE 2024

Headlines - a dry month, slightly cooler than recent Junes, but sunnier.

The average minimum temperature was 11.6 deg. C, nearly one degree above the average (10.8 deg. C). The lowest temperature was 7.3 deg. C on the 4th June. The average maximum temperature was 21.1 deg. C, just over one degree above the average (19.9 deg. C) The highest temperature was 29.2 deg.C on the 24th. Rainfall, at 18.5 mm was only 30% of the average (62.8 mm) and the wettest day was the 15th with 5mm. It only rained on 7 days. Sunshine levels were in line with the long term average, being 8% above average. The wind blew mostly from the north-west, west and south-west (24 days).

Trivia of the month - in the space of less than a fortnight the daytime high of 16.1 deg.C on 11 June was actually lower than the night time low of 17.8 deg.C on the 25th. In other words this night was warmer than some days.

JULY 2024

Headlines - a month of two halves, cool and wet to start, warm, dry and sunny for the second half

The average minimum temperature was 13.9 deg. C, nearly one and a half degrees above the average (12.5 deg. C). The lowest temperature was 9.1 deg. C on the 6th July. The average maximum temperature was 23.1 deg. C, just one degree above the average (22.1 deg. C) The highest temperature was 30.4 deg.C on the 19th. Rainfall, at 48.5 mm was only 77% of the average (62.6 mm) and the wettest day was the 8th with 15.5mm. It only rained on 6 days. Sunshine levels were 8% below the long term average. The wind blew mostly from the west, south-west and south (23 days).

Trivia of the month - most of this month's rain fell on just three days, the 6th, 7th and 8th with 31mm out of a total of 48.5mm.

Until recently I used Humax* peat-based multi-purpose compost with added perlite to grow my cuttings and seeds in. This was mostly successful except for a few shrubs which tended to be more difficult. Viburnum bodnantense 'Dawn' was one of them, I'd be lucky to get 10% rooted cuttings. When this product was withdrawn I started to use John Innes No1 with some perlite (with some trepidation) and am really delighted to tell you that I've had an 80% success rate. This is a winter flowering shrub which attracts bees and is such a good, easy plant for the garden.

*Humax peat-free seems to be mainly wood fibre, it is lightweight and looks floofy as one customer described it. I suggest people use John Innes No3 mixed with it for any container growing.

Reminders for the month.....plant more bulbs (there is always room for a few more), pick peas, beans, lettuce, carrots and courgettes (select the best and enter into the village produce show and win prizes) and bring houseplants back into the house.

WOMENS INSTITUTE

Meeting 7.30pm at Nelson Club first Monday of Month
President:- Sue Gill Tel: 01926 460278
Secretary: Joan Ford Tel: 01926 810220

Sue opened the last meeting before our summer break welcoming everyone and we all sang Jerusalem as usual..

Joan went through the various trips and outings and then welcomed our speaker for the evening Eddie Smallwood who gave a very interesting talk on Medieval Medicine and hats off to the brave ladies who tried the snail cream which is a remedy for dry skin and warts and can still be bought today. It was actually a very soothing cream which smelled quite nice!

During August some of us visited Cym's smallholding at Broadwell for a small tour of the animals and an evening barbecue. It was a lovely balmy evening enjoyed by all.

The Produce Show, Scarecrow Trail and our Cake Stall for the Summer Festival will have taken place by now and hopefully all went well but as of writing it's all systems go with the Produce Show organisation.

Our WI are to hold the Lavender Service with the Church on the 3rd October at 2 pm. This was a delightful short service last year followed by the handing out of lavender bags which are in the process of being made. There is lavender drying everywhere! This is followed by a lovely get together with tea and cakes. It was lovely to see some Stockton people who came over with the Galanos group. The service and refreshments are open to everyone in our village so please come along.

We are about to start back to regular meetings after the summer and if anyone would like to come along to see what we do please ring Joan or Sue on the above numbers. There is no charge for the first visit but you may wish to participate in the raffle.

Our next meeting will be Monday 2nd September 2024 at 7.30 pm, upstairs at the Nelson Club when the speaker is Alistair Price with What did you do in the war Dad.

The competition is War Memorabilia

STOCKTON VILLAGE HALL

Bookings - Helen Kittendorf Tel: 815376

Hourly Rate £9

email: helenkitten-

We hope you have all had a lovely August and managed to find some sunshine on your holidays!

We will be holding our AGM on Monday 23rd September at 7pm in the Village Hall – all welcome to attend.

Our Village Hall is a key part of the local community, providing a meeting place for community-related activities. Below is a reminder of some of the great activities already taking place in the Village Hall:

Every Monday - Senior Day Centre - 9am - 3pm

Every Tuesday – Clubbercise – 7pm - 8pm

Every Wednesday - Lazy Cat Yoga - 7.30pm - 9pm

Every Friday – Toddlersaurs - 9.30am - 11.30am

Coffee Morning - 1st Saturday of the month - 10am - 12noon – we have a library with paperbacks as well as audio books – please pop in and have a browse!

Whist Drive - every 2nd Saturday of the month - 7.30pm start

Stockton Cinema – last Saturday of the month - 7pm

Thinking about holding an event for friends and family – maybe a one-off or perhaps a regular event? Then please consider the Village Hall – we have parking, good kitchen facilities, disabled access, a stage and tables and chairs – contact Helen on the number above for more information or to arrange a viewing.

If you want to join the mailing list for Stockton Cinema, please contact Steve on stevekittendorf@hotmail.co.uk, to find out what film is coming up & the supper on offer.

The Village Hall Trustees

Mums enjoy helping to make Pom poms at the Village Hall Stay and Play session !

Catherine Black and Steve Neale are dominating the club's leagues at present. With just seven weeks left for the Summer League, Steve Neale is leading with 72 points, just one ahead of Catherine Black on 71 points. Sarah Jerger (58) and John Emberton (53) are way behind so it promises a two-horse photo finish! The annual Singles League has five months to go, with Catherine Black ahead on 16 wins, closely chased by Steve Neale and Jeff Rand on 13 wins and John Emberton on 12 wins.

Catherine and Steve also figure in a Stockton team, which - together with Richard & Becky Rushton - has been selected to play for the Heart of England Region in the National Inter-Regional Championship in September. Charlie Caruana is also selected with colleagues from Coventry.

Only six players turned up for our July melee due to weather, holidays and football! After three rounds, Anthea Sansom was the only unbeaten player and took the honours. Emily Adams was the best of those with two wins.

However, there was a great turnout of 23 players for our August melee, including seven guests from other clubs. After three rounds there were six unbeaten players, the prizes going to Becky Rushton with a +23 points advantage, followed closely by Rick Hayes with +22 and Jenny Lowe with +21. The other unbeaten players were Doreen Scrutton with +18, Ewan Cameron with +17 and Bill Bentley with +15.

Stockton Pétanque Club continued their programme of social evenings on 25th July when 14 members of the Rugby Webb Ellis 41 Club enjoyed a Pétanque competition followed by a French-themed buffet to complete a very sociable evening. The club is available for any local organisation to enjoy a social evening comprising a game of Pétanque followed by a buffet. Contact Becky Rushton or John Emberton for more details.

The next melee will be on September 7th. Everyone is welcome - we will provide the boules and tuition on the rules.

In the meantime, the club has plans to double the size of our terrain to 16 lanes which enable us to host larger Regional and National competitions, offer our terrain as a venue for the Heart of England Regional Programme of coaching and accommodate larger social events.

STOCKTON AND I

The autobiographical writings of Victor Neal (Part 9)

BOYS' SCHOOL, MAYDAYS, VILLAGE HALL AND CANAL BOATS.

When my cousin Bert Neal started work (he would no doubt have been staggered by any mention of today's further education) he immediately developed his flair for making profitable little deals on his parents' milk-rounds in the village. He cleared many a debt of his customers by settling for a side of bacon or a prime ham or the like, which items he often offered for sale to my mother, his aunt. As for the figures in his milk books, it was understood that only his mother could translate the hieroglyphics he concocted.

Talking of Bert's school-dodging reminds me of other little dramas enacted in that old boys' school, the little porch of which, containing a few books as well as acting as a cloakroom, carried the text over the door: 'Feed my lambs', to which someone, perhaps in the heat of the moment, had sardonically added: '...with the stick'. There was the day when Cecil 'Tiger' Wood (is the nickname knack another of the dying arts?) fully justified his name in so fierce a struggle with Mr Boulter that between them they smashed the glass partition between the two rooms. This feat, 'when old Tiger smashed the screen', was one of those things handed down in some awe to the young newcomers.

I recollect the day, too, when our same Headmaster was attempting a little well-deserved chastisement of Bill 'Kirk' Warner. Bill managed to get hold of WHB's collar, one of those high starched chokers, from the rear and to our amusement, as our respected master whipped round to get hold of his intended victim, so Bill went with him, legs swinging in the air.

I didn't escape a nickname, either. It began when my friend Bob acquired a toy cinema, a tin contraption which spun round so that, peeping through the slots of the revolving part, the pictures inside appeared to be moving in quite a realistic way. He brought it to school one day, and it became such a popular diversion among our fellows that we blossomed into impresarios and held shows down the 'jitty', a narrow passage between the school building and the wall separating us from the Manor Farm yard. We made a charge for admittance, of a conker, a button (we used to play a game called 'buttons'), a marble...or, well, we weren't particular and seldom refused any offer at all, which proved we were learning something on or off the educational premises.

As the cinema's novelty paled, I introduced my hobby of dabbling in a bit of conjuring which immediately increased our attendances, kept our entertainment solvent and earned me the nickname 'Magic', which stuck for years until wars and things messed so many matters up by carrying us away from each other and so on, until now Sammy Warner is almost the only one to use it occasionally. He himself became 'Weller'.

At the risk of another piece of potential swaggering I relate a trivial incident when Miss Mason, our teacher at the time, drawn by some boy's failure to spell some word or other, maybe touching boastfulness herself, challenged the class to give her a word she couldn't spell. Several were suggested which she romped through, until I shyly suggested 'encyclopaedia'. 'What?' she says. I repeat my word. 'No such word,' she astonishingly dismissed me. Now I wish she hadn't done that, for I was sensitive enough to let it destroy some of my confidence for a time for fear I was in the wrong myself. How could I know better than a teacher? But alas, poor Miss Mason, her own tragedy of dying so young, and so soon after her marriage, puts my grievance into its proper perspective. And she may not even have heard me right.

Jack Berry, who was to become such a pal later, I remember at school only for his climbing a ladder, honoured by Mr Boulter's enlisting him for the job, over the porch to fix up a holder for carrying a flag on some special day. The holder remained there for years to remind me of this.

I should have said earlier, as it was at my beginning at the old boys' school on leaving the infants, that at the school gate the bigger lads would stand sentry and demand: 'Boer or Briton?' on our wishing to enter, and woe betide you if you replied 'Boer.' Only the biggest hardy lads, looking for a scrap, dared make this answer.

Talk about nicknames! We had Shuffler, Dib-dab, Pug, Nephry, Cowbag (from his huge marble-bag – he was perhaps the best player of all), Boggy, Jossit, Teg, Peggy, Robin and Coddy. There was Podgehat and Push-hat, Punch and Perfect, Timmy and Tiny, Traveller and Turkey, Tetty and Tripe. We were before Walt Disney for three of his seven dwarfs: Happy, Sleepy and Doc.

Let's get along to the Village Hall for a change. But on the way there's the Green again, and I haven't told you that long before the Speak-pipe days, on the very spot where the children used to gather to say their pieces into the pipe there was a pond. It's just the vaguest blur in my memory but I accept my elders' word that it was known as Rawbone's Pit or Pond.

And oughtn't we to consider the great Maypole Days held on this Green, while we are about it? My wife was duly 'crowned' on almost this same spot, and so were Topsy Bicknell, Ida Cleaver and Edie Maskell. Can we recall their respective consorts? Yes, Cyril Bicknell (Topsy's brother), Bruce Law, Wal Neal and George Neal; Charlie 'Chuck' Tompkins escorted Gladys Wilks and Charlie Law Doris Todd. These six occasions merit a special mention because they were the years when our Mr Boulter developed an interest in the ceremonies, and his energies created such a procession of decorated vehicles and personalities that we became renowned for many miles around for our Maydays, as we had been for our flower shows in Mr Rawbone's heyday.

My 'owd woman's' year of sovereignty saw the outbreak of the 1914 war and never again was the affair arranged on so large a scale. I myself had refused a kingdom before I left the school, but that was in the earlier era of minor Maypoles, when we used to walk round the village singing appropriate songs of Maying, carrying a huge garland of flowers, and to tea in the school itself. In those days, when we were separated from the girls after the infants' classes, these sort of things were considered essentially feminine and we looked on them with masculine (and possibly feigned) contempt. The girls, in their school, elected Queen and also King, without any consultation whatever with us.

Topsy
Bicknell

Queen

To my astonishment that particular year Ede Rawbone, one of the older girls, reported to my mother their decision to honour me with the royal role. I had no objection to my intended Queen, Janet Wall, far from it. It must have been that my tender years weren't up to the publicity involved, for in my inherent shyness I passed her majesty on to young Frank Russell, the butcher's son, perhaps with a pang of regret.

Anyway, I hardly knew my wife then, she being a few years my junior, which seems so much at that age. Much less did I realise she was in succession to the throne. This last one-time majesty reminds me, with all respect to Mr Boulter, that Miss Morris, head of the infants' and later to become my wife's sister-in-law by marrying brother Arthur, also had a tremendously big hand in the staging of those notable ceremonies we have mentioned.

From these out-of-door festivities, which of course included the traditional dancing round the Maypole itself (Miss Morris being indefatigable in this) the attendant Sports and the Tea, not to mention the gaily-decorated and streamered streets vying with the vehicles, let's see what we remember of the indoor entertainment the Village Hall offered.

I have the faintest idea of having heard, or heard of, Arthur Rawbone (cello) in a string trio providing music for dancing, etc. Before that I am told my mother-in-law could remember a Joe Neal of Braunston (no kin of ours, to my knowledge) prancing up and down the Hall with his concertina full steam ahead. Somehow I get mixed up about this, with a fiddler doing the same thing, so let's get on to surer ground.

There was Billy Stephens, the barber of Southam, newly arrived in the district at that time. He must be getting on now, for that's a long time ago and still he barbers in that grand little town. Billy would come over with a Southam concert party; in his role of comedian. Whether he could or did stand up to more mature critics I couldn't say, but I know he got hold of our generation all right. 'PC49', 'Up the stairs and down again', those two about father papering the parlour, and joining the Territorials, are the songs I connect with that period, but cannot remember whether Billy sang the lot or shared them with other visiting comics.

I know Alf Flood, church organist for over 40 years, would sing ‘Polly-wolly-doodle’ and ‘Just tread on the tail of me mush’ and that we lads would be mystified at the applause given to Maud Kendall’s classic recital on the violin, uncultured louts that we were. All through the long years there were whist and dances, political meetings and now and then school concerts and smoking dittos.

G B Blythe Esq of the Top House and boss of the Nelson Cement Works usually acted as chairman at the Tory meetings, naturally enough. The only outstanding thing I remember him saying, though, was something about his supposing he was regarded as a sort of father to the village, and this stayed in my mind because I had heard him called a good many different names, but never that one. It’s possible, in some respects he may even have deserved it, for after all he had this very Hall built for Stockton, and later the Club.

But Stocktonians were never such squire-worshippers as most villages roundabout, and elsewhere, no doubt, at that time. We were not wholly agricultural, you see, and the boss’s very cement likely made the difference. As a young man I would have smiled at the suggestion that we villagers could differ so much, particularly after our mixing in the cauldron of the war camps, but growing older I realise we still mostly retain an individual character: horsey Napton, naïve Long Itchington against a more sophisticated Stockton; Southam what you would expect of a small market town; Methodist Broadwell, and so on. But I wouldn’t pretend that the subtle difference is so easily defined; there is more to it than that, a mental analysis that words – my words at least – fail to describe.

I remember swinging Indian clubs with my classmates at one of the School Concerts, which was about the extent of my contribution to Village Hall entertainment, on that side of the curtain, anyway. That aforementioned streak of the impresario (this flamboyant word is getting hold of me) broke new ground, and we went on tour of lesser halls – to be honest, a tour of our mates’ houses. We had procured a toy magic lantern complete with slides, and we added to the musty, fusty and coal-dusty air of those plazas and palaces the smell of our oil-burning lamp, a fascinating combination which still lingers lovingly in our nostrils. I wouldn’t say our parents were very impressed by the initiative of this venture: they largely missed the point and their reviews were mainly concerned with the dirt involved and, like most reviewers, there were times when they got quite heated and expressed themselves strongly.

I was astonished a few years ago on a Euston-bound train by the proficiency developed by modern train-spotting enthusiasts, such juggling with figures and checking with handbooks. Less prosaic and less efficient was our childhood spotting: how can 987654 compare with Venus, Daffodil and Captain Cuttle? About a mile’s walk from home was the canal where we idled and waited for the passing of boats. These narrow-boats usually ran in pairs, all so correctly in those days: Emperor and Empress, King and Queen, Lion and Lioness, Daffodil and Narcissus, Jupiter and Venus. Long years were to pass before I could be bothered to discover what Scylla had in common with Charybdis. I know I was puzzled as to how we could possibly pronounce the latter and, to a lesser degree, still am.

In later years my work was to keep me near the canal for considerable periods and give me the opportunity to note the drift towards inconsistency amongst these old partners, now passing so much less frequently. The noble Lion is quite likely to pass with the tender Daffodil, entrancing Venus to keep company with Bedworth or Nuneaton, and Helen with Falstaff. A democratic age, I suppose, with progress and all that, but such strange company.

The last two boats belonging to our local cement works to survive the iron and macadam road competition, and to be seen together for some considerable time were Captain Cuttle in royal company with Princess Mary.

Discovery of a Cinerary Urn at Stockton.

Only a few months ago considerable excitement was caused when it became known that the fossil remains of an ichthyosaurus had been discovered at Stockton. Today we announce with much pleasure that so recently as Wednesday last a find of an equally interesting nature was made in the rear of the Stockton Limeworks. It is a rare and beautiful relic of Roman times in the shape of a cinerary urn. As regards design it is as artistic as the celebrated vase in the conservatory at Warwick Castle.

Unfortunately, however, it is not perfect for in excavating it a careless workman seems to have completely destroyed one of the handles.

This is the more to be regretted because so far as we are aware there is but one other example of the kind outside the South Kensington Museum, that being in the possession of a gentleman at Edgbaston.

Round the body of the urn runs a Latin inscription. We trust that the exquisite urn will be sent to London to be taken care of by the authorities of the British Museum.
